Black Womxn Flourish

Black Womxn Flourish (https://www.blackwomxnflourish.co/) is a design for wellbeing collective shaping the future of Black womxn’s health and healing through creative, community-led practices. We create collaborative spaces with communities for visionary gatherings, tool and strategy creation, and healing-centric experiences where Black womxn/women/femmes are redefining and designing what it means to be well. Moved by the audacity to bring a more just, pleasurable, and flourishing future into existence, our work seeks to transform unjust design processes and dominant health cultures. We do this by building new practices, more possibilities and radical ways for Black womxn to design the worlds in which they want to flourish.

Caribana Coop

Caribana Coop (https://www.facebook.com/caribanacoop/) came together to unite different passions we all had around decolonizing, antiracism, solidarity economy, youth development, human rights and how all of this is far behind in the interest of the educational systems young people are going through. Our intention and work is to create materials, workshops and consulting that organizes and gives teachers, families and youth the power to create learning experiences that nourish their interest and the people's and planet's wellbeing.

Change Elemental

At Change Elemental (http://changeelemental.org/) partners across sectors to transform systems into more powerful vehicles for justice. Combining wisdom and experimentation, experience and reflection, we co-create approaches that include necessary shifts in what we do, how we do it, and who we are while we are doing it.
The intention of Espejos Cempazuchitl (https://www.instagram.com/espejoscempazuchitl/) is to be in reflection, ceremony and to practice with the earth and elements; with ancestor wisdom; with practicing our visions for the now as stewards with the land, roots, seeds, food, and water. At its heart, Espejos is about us being free and allowing ourselves to launch and fully walk our calling, dreams, desires, and instructions with a larger perimeter of land. Our intention is rooted in reciprocal sharing of ceremonial agroecological land stewardship with our communities – our neighbors in Barrio Quebrada Grande in Trujillo Alto, our queer community, our fellow land stewards, our elders, our young people, our fellow immigrants and internationalists of the Caribbean bioregion. Our intention is to continue, transform and expand the legacy of human ancestors who have dedicated their life’s purpose to defending the land and nature in Puerto Rico from going into the hands of “Opportunity Zones Development.”

Feed Durham NC

Feed Durham is a scrappy, determined mutual aid collective that came together in answer to mounting hunger in the Durham area, due to COVID. Our project intention is to train so that we can provide food for protests and encampments, to train and skill share so that we can thrive during times of unrest, to move resources from neighbors that have to neighbors that need.

Healing justice book, emerging

Our group grew from an introduction of a mutual collaborator and wellness practitioner. Now, at the next stage of our process, we’ve learned that the archive isn’t just printed—often the medium is one of us in conversation with others, but those conversations are informed by other conversations, in a fractal that makes up the healing justice ecosystem.
Life is a Circle based in Dayton Ohio, is a collaborative healing justice initiative engaging holistic grounding tools and practices within our communities of social entrepreneurs and change agents through a series of healing and wellness circles. We infuse creative expression, yoga and movement, breathwork, personal reflection, and storytelling to resource ourselves and one another as we co-create and shape change together locally and globally.

Make the Road New York

Make the Road New York (https://maketheroadny.org/) is working with major paradigm and narrative shifts around labor, community building, mutual aid and the heart of survival. We intend to move past a narrative of relief - to one of repair. We are actively writing the first ever policy in this country that would fully ensure access to unemployment benefits for all workers excluded from it now - sex workers, domestic workers, cash earners and undocumented people.
The housing crisis is at a historic inflection point and there is a mounting need for solutions. Developed from conversations and workshops with housing advocates, activists, developers, and government workers, The Most Beautiful Home...Maybe (https://www.themostbeautifulhome.com/) is an experiment to see if we can use art to influence housing policy.

Voces Unidas

Voces Unidas (https://vocesunidasrgv.org/) is working in alignment with cosmic cycles (synchronizing with the moon, solstices and equinoxes) to create nourishment and healing along the US/Mexico border. Our project centers ancestral journeying, cultural story mapping and circles of song and dance, as we spiral to remember that the earth, herself, does not recognize the illusion of borders.
